Youth and Senior Access to advanced Library material

In keeping with increased protection of students in an open information environment, persons under the age deemed appropriate, who wish to access the Library and/or borrow books beyond their current age reading capacity must complete and return a Parental Consent Form.

If you need another copy, please contact reception.